1. Objective

The purpose of creating these guidelines is to promote a culture of ownership whereby the onus of response to any mail/ information requirement must necessarily lie on the recipient rather than the sender.

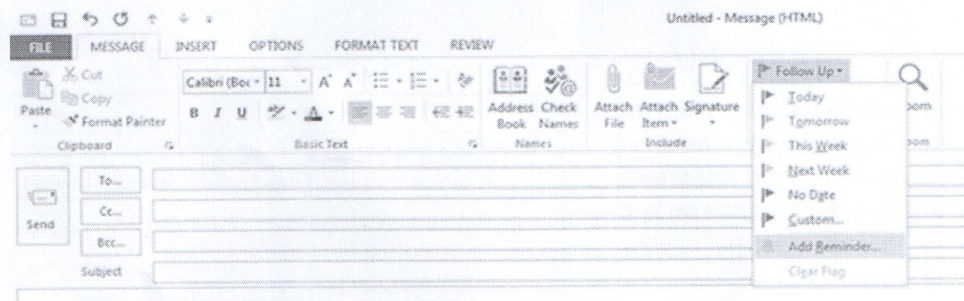

2. Scope & Applicability

The policy governs all employees & workers on the regular rolls of the CMR Group

3. General Guidelines

- 3.1 Emails are to be kept to a minimum hence while replying the endeavour of the recipient should be to address all the concerns of the sender rather than buying time by giving irrelevant replies.
- 3.2 Flag : Use of Auto Reminders in Outlook (for mails) For any mails wherein you need a time bound response from the person you have mailed, please use outlook auto reminders as per guidelines below :

Step 1 : Click Follow-Up in the MESSAGE as shown in below picture & in Follow up menu click "Add Reminder" as highlighted:

Step 2 : Once you click Add reminder the following message box will pop up :

Flagging a message for yourself creates a to-do item that reminds you to follow up. After you follow up on the message, you can mark the to-do item complete. Flagging a message for the recipient sends a flag and a reminder with your message.

☒ Flag for Me

Flag to: Follow up

Start date: 16 November 2016

Due date: 16 November 2016

☒ Reminder: 16 November 2016 16:00

☐ Flag for Recipients

Flag to: Follow up

☐ Reminder: 16 November 2016 16:00

OK Cancel

A) Clicking 'Flag for me' will create a reminder only for you on that date as per the details set by you

*Note that flag for me will only create a reminder for you on the particular date you set in the reminder, to create a reminder date for the person you are sending the mail to please follow Step 3

Step 3 : Click "flag for recipient" and "Reminder" as shown below and create a reminder for the person who has to submit information to you one/two days prior to your own reminder date.

(This will help him/ her reply to you on time as he/she will get a reminder on your task as per the date set by you.)

- 3.4 Default closure time for any mail sent without a flag is three days
- 3.5 All recipients must provide the necessary information as per the agreed timeline without need of reminders by the sender.
- 3.6 In case of seeking extension on the date of flag, the status of work, valid explanation and the new date of closure must be necessarily sent.

4. Penalties for defaults

In case of repeated lapses by recipient to follow the guidelines, the sender can refer the trail mail to HR for issue of yellow/ red card
