Handwritten notes on a ledger page, likely a ledger or account book. The page is divided into columns by vertical lines. The text is written in cursive script, possibly in a historical or regional dialect. The columns are labeled at the top: "Date", "Description", "Debit", and "Credit". The entries are organized into rows, with some rows having multiple entries in the "Description" column. The handwriting is somewhat faded and the ink is dark, possibly from a quill or fountain pen. The page is numbered "1" in the bottom right corner.
